Dedication

During our four years in high school, we have been aided by numerous teachers. But one particular teacher has affected the lives of most of us in one way or another. We, the Class of 1983, have chosen to acknowledge a woman, who, for the past four years, has coached us, taught us, and listened to us. Through her encouragement, enthusiasm, and desire, we have achieved success. We will always have very cherished memories of her. It is with much appreciation that we dedicate the 1983 Cynosure to Mrs. Donna Prince.

1. Mrs. Prince shows school spirit as a junior high cheerleader.
2. Mrs. Prince displays her love for animals.
3. Mrs. Prince's greatest love — coaching.
4. Mrs. Prince exhibits her acting ability with an unknown friend.
5. Mrs. Prince with her husband.

Growth Together

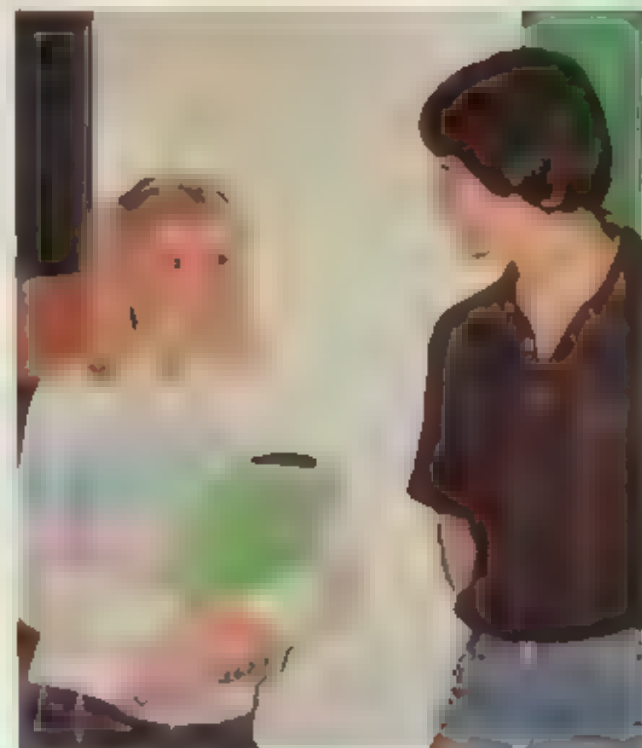

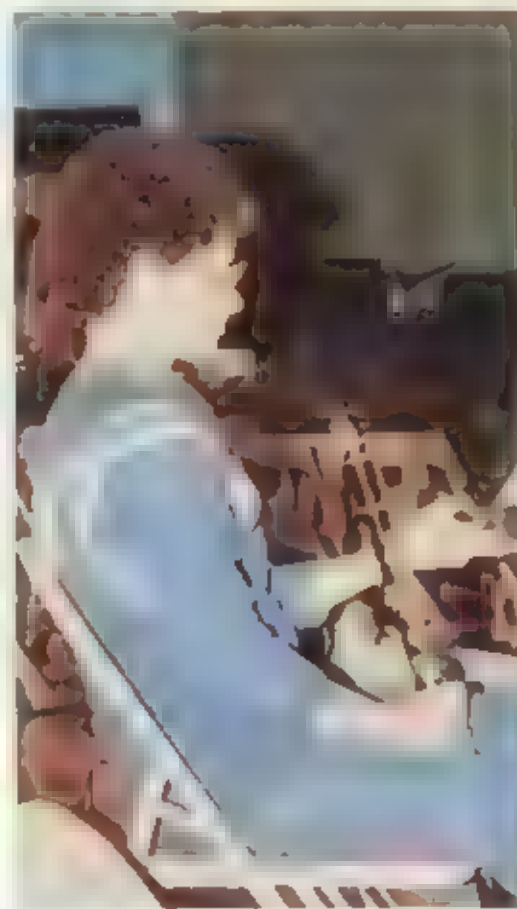

Each of us through these years has encountered many challenges and opportunities. We could never have met these challenges without help from our friends. We have relied and counted on our fellow classmates. With their help, we have developed our characters. We have grown with each other hand in hand. Together with our friends we have reached for the stars, searched for knowledge, and looked for tomorrow's answers.

Steps for Tomorrow

So as we toss our yesterdays aside and turn to chase our tomorrows, we hold our high school years very close to our hearts. We will always remember the friends and teachers who have helped us to become who we are today. These teachers and classmates have aided in our growth. They have developed with us. These friendships and memories will remain everlasting.

1982 Homecoming Court Reigns

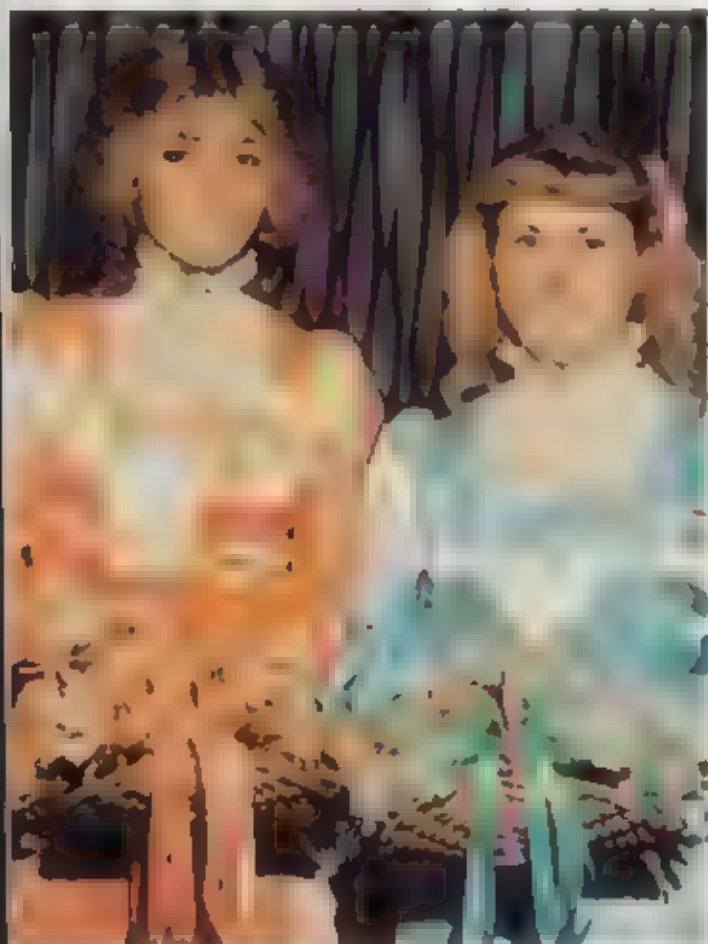

On October 6, 1982, the most memorable event of the school year took place — Homecoming 1982. This year's theme was "Under the Big Top" and several short skits were performed under the direction of ringmaster, Kim Weber. Lions, Shari Stewart and Tracy Rinsland, were led through their tricks by lion tamer, Megan Savidge. Debbie Ikehara portrayed a fat lady; Mary Shultz and Lisa Anderson were the tall man, and Marcia Strackhouse told fortunes. Clowns and Jugglers entertained the audience.

The court was introduced by Tony Leberto and then Kay Soper was named the 1982 Homecoming Queen. Jayme Hendricks, last year's queen, crowned Kay following the announcement.

Other members of the court included seniors Kellie Lendh, Chele Moll, Shelly Ritter, and Cathy Herrold. The Junior representatives were Michele Glassic, and Cindy Bowersox. Donna App and Colleen Daly were chosen to represent the sophomore class. Freshmen members of the court were Yvonne Conrad and Lori Weider.

Circus Sets Theme for Homecoming

The Homecoming game was with Central Columbia and during half time the court was introduced on the football field and then driven around the stadium in corvettes. While on the field, Kay Soper was presented with a dozen long stem roses from Mr. Wochley, the Senior class advisor

Homecoming activities concluded with a dance with the sounds of "Jammer." This year's dance was considered to be one of the best homecoming dances within the last few years because of the large number of students that attended.

Tropical Paradise Sets From Atmosphere

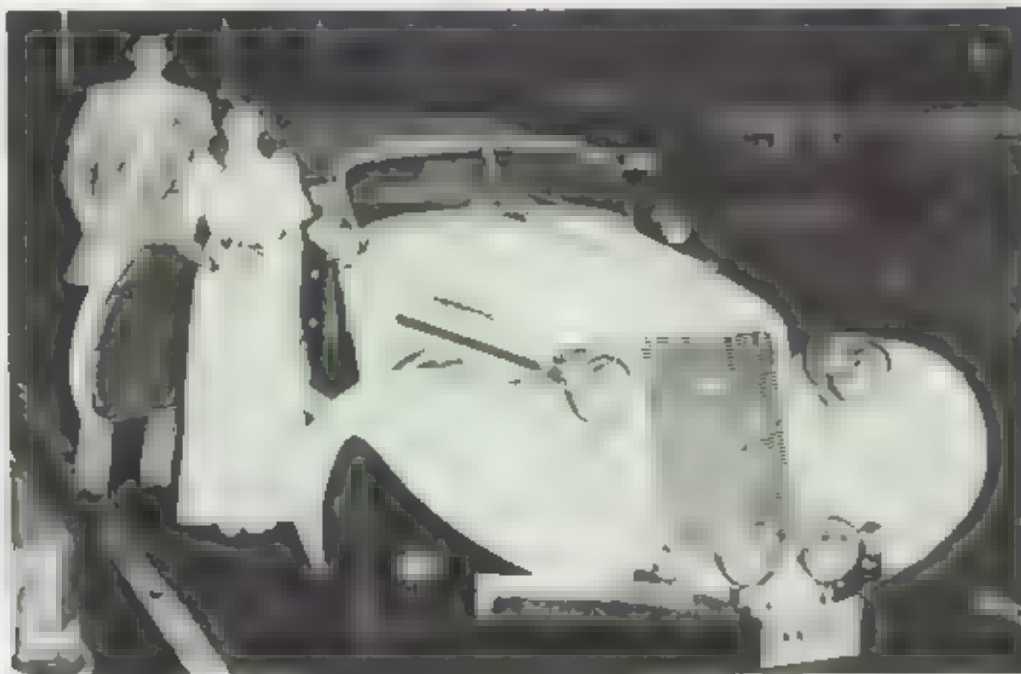

Prom '82

With "A Tropical Paradise" as its theme, the 1982 Junior-Senior Prom was enjoyed by all. The festivities were held in the banquet room of the Holiday Inn in Shamokin Dam on May 8.

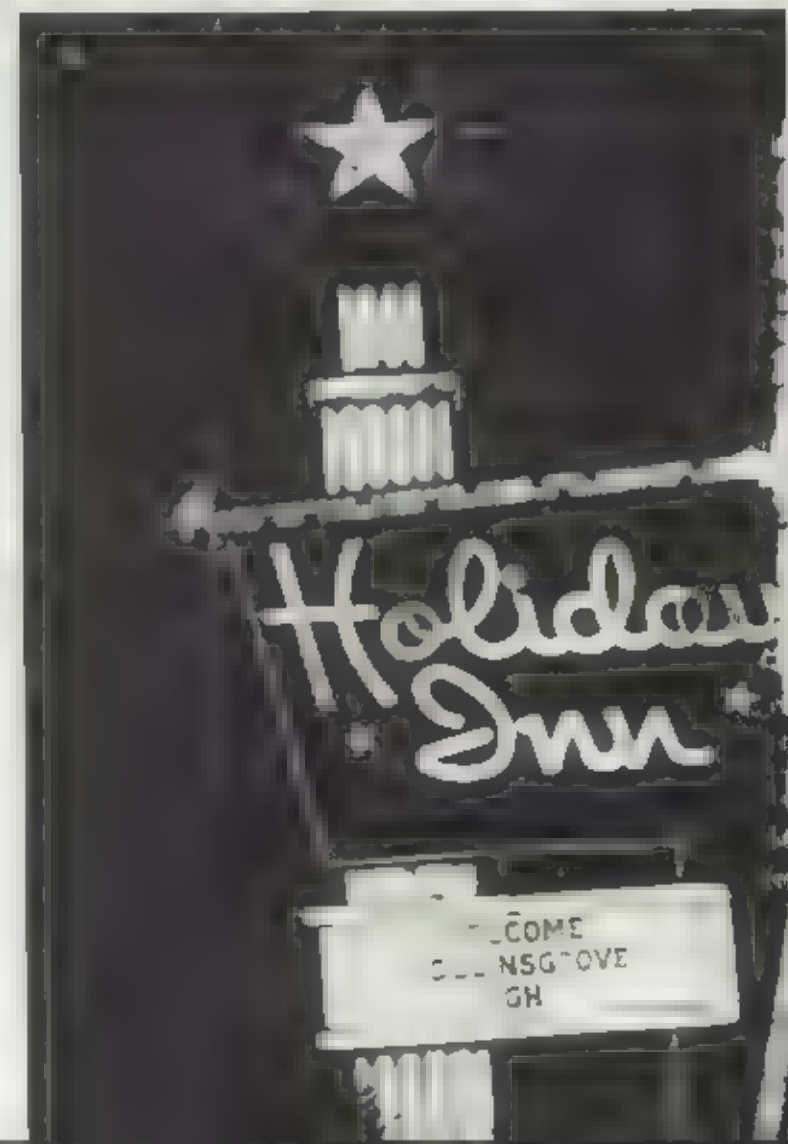

The banquet room was decorated with shells, nets, and fish; and each place setting held a glass with the date and theme of the prom inscribed on it.

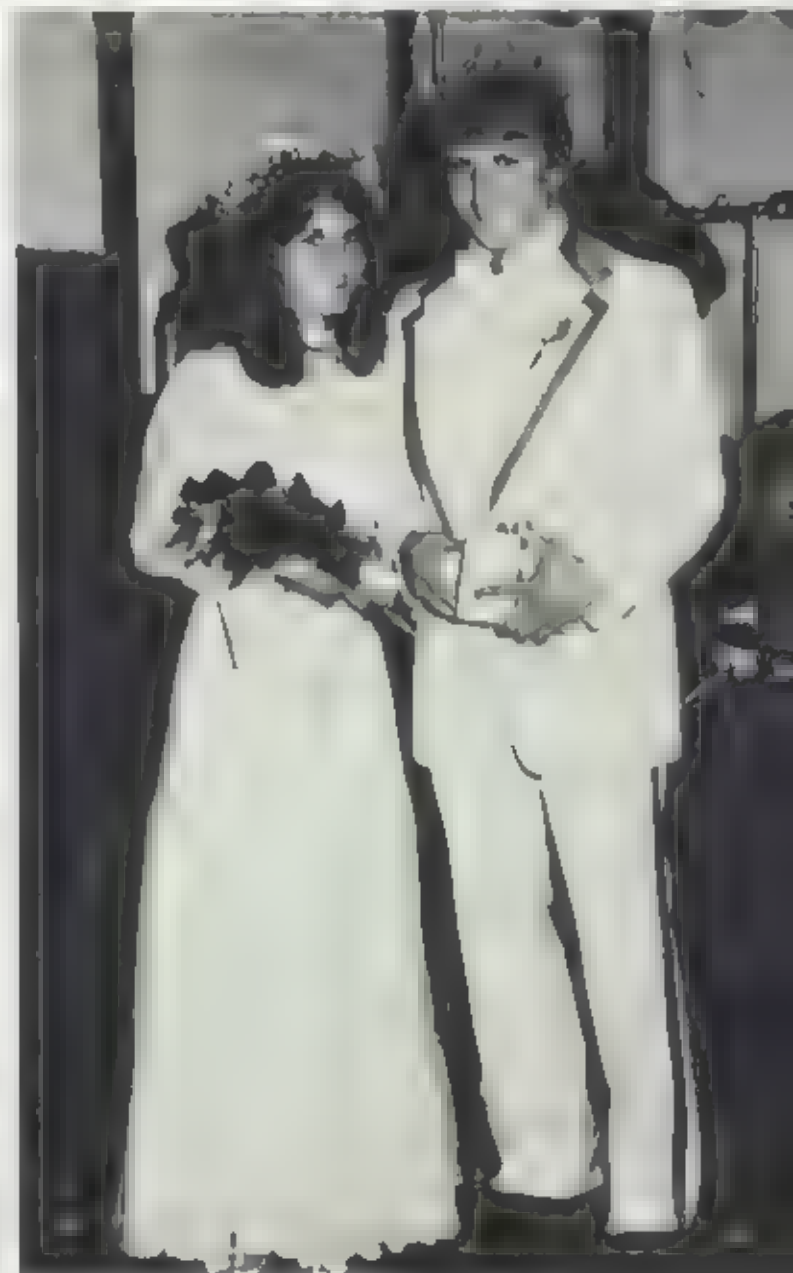

Some three hundred people danced to the music of Chance. Kellie Pence, Junior Class President, announced the 1982 prom court: Chris Anne Beardslee, Matt Lutze, Nicole Reggia, Eric Aucker, and King and Queen, Tim Cook and Jayme Hendricks.

Spectrum Highlights Post Prom

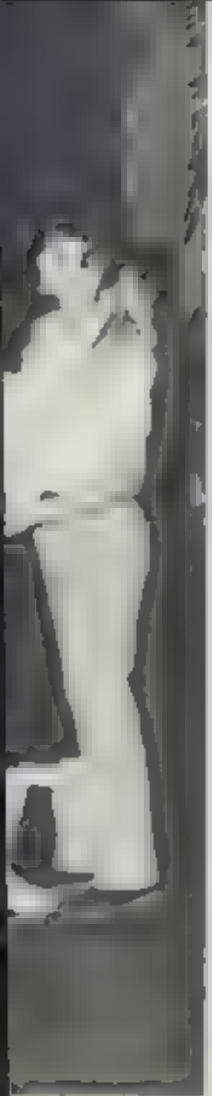

The theme "Spectrum" of the 1982 Post Prom was well suited for the environment. Those who attended found themselves surrounded by rainbows, geometric shapes, and balloons of all colors. The partition, separating the cafeteria and the gym, was opened and music by the group "Spectrum" was played from 11 p.m.

to 4 a.m. Couples danced, socialized, and ate food provided by the chaperons. At 2 p.m., Diane Gingrich announced the Post Prom court for 1982. Shelly Ritter and Chip Weaver were crowned queen and king by last year's king and queen, Eric Aucker and Jayme Hendricks, while court members Beth Moyer, Craig Doak, Willie Wolfe and Kellie Lendh looked on. By 4 a.m. the last couples had gone but their memories will long be remembered.

Small Musical Cast Provides Cartoon Entertainment

Under the direction of Fred Hooper and Robert Whitmoyer, "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown" carried on the tradition of outstanding musicals at Selmsgrove Area High School. Cheerful music, colorful costumes, and creative scenery attracted an audience of young and old.

Although the cast was considerably smaller than in past productions, each cast member worked hard and dedicated much time in learning lines and music to make the musical a success.

"You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown" was a series of musical and humorous skits with an all-time favorite character — Charlie Brown, portrayed by Paul Withrow. Jim Muller starred as Snoopy, that well-known beagle. Lucy, played by Lisa Anderson, spent her time listening to Schroeder's. Todd Miller, music Linus, Eric Deibler, and Peppermint Patti, Josie Flanders, completed the talented cast. These skits, though developing no definite plot, clearly developed the theme that Charlie Brown is a good man.

1. L. Anderson sings a love song to T. Miller
2. The Charlie Brown gang sings with enthusiasm
3. You're a good man Charlie Brown
4. L. Anderson and E. Deibler settle a slight disagreement

Mystery Prevails in Junior Class Play

The new combination of directors George Heilman and Fred Hooper created another successful Junior Class Play. "The Soapy Murder Case" was the title of the Three Act comedy by Tim Kelly.

The play was an "off the wall comedy" about old Horatio Tucker, sponsor of TV's most popular daytime soap opera, who has received an anonymous note telling him that a clue to his killer is in the following day's episode. As a result of this threat, Tucker invites the cast to his home to act out the episode. The acts to follow revealed characters slipping in and out of their television roles as they avoided becoming the next victims of the murderer.

Seniors Combine Music and Lumberjacks

Under the direction of George Cravitz and Dave Lauer and assisted by Jamie Mitchell and Jan Drummond, the Class of 1983 presented "Lumberjacks and Weddingbells". The play, a musical comedy, included the typical "villain" versus "good guy" situation and many enjoyable events.

A group of Weddingbells traveled to the new Washington territory to marry lumberjacks who have been starved for affection for three years. Arrangements are made by Asa Mercer, a young lawyer who wished to bring civilization to the woods of Washington. Upset by the possibility of culture are Ma Scrubbs and family (for personal reasons) and Mayor Crook (for political motives). These adversaries plot to ruin Asa's plans and to force the girls to return to Boston.

1. The Scrubbs family and Mayor Crook plot their evil task
2. Melissa Pendleton obtains her missing brooch.
3. Pie Annie and The Weddingbells hover over the wounded hermit
4. Weddingbells find comfort in singing during the storm

Weddingbells "Ring"

The leads of the thirty-five members cast included Chip Weaver, Dean Kerstetter, Lisa Anderson, Cara Vignone, Donna Snyder, Megan Savidge, Andrea Thilo, and Shane Ulrich. Despite the large cast, each actor and actress had a very enjoyable time presenting their final play as the Class of 1983.

CHRISTMAS

An Old Fashioned Christmas Sparks Holiday Season

The Selinsgrove High School seniors once again brought holiday spirit to downtown Selinsgrove by decorating with pine trees, lollipops, ornaments, and greens with big red bows. Keeping up with the Christmas spirit, the 1982 theme of an Old Fashioned Christmas created another successful White Christmas assembly at Selinsgrove Area High School. The gym was brightly decorated with remembrances of Christmases gone by. The student body and court enjoyed the skit, "The Nutcracker," which involved characters of the actual play, including toy soldiers, mice, marionettes and numerous other toys, plus members of the Drosselmeyer family. The 1982 White Christmas assembly continued the tradition of bringing holiday spirit to the Christmas season.

Vo-Tech School Offers Special Training

77 members of the class of 1983 chose to take advantage of the services and equipment used in training students for future occupations at the Sun Area Vocational Technical School. This school offers specialized studies in various shop activities. Through these studies, students learn the necessary skills for the occupation that they have decided to pursue after high school.

Some of the career choices offered to Tech students are cosmetology, data processing, mill work, auto body repair. Some of the seniors actually experience their future occupation through on-the-job training through the co-op program.

Prominent on the international scene during the 1982-1983 school year was the Europeans' protest of placing short-range nuclear missiles in their territory, the presence of American, Italian, and French peace keeping troops in Lebanon, and the death of the Soviet leader Leonid Brezhnev. The world was stunned by Britain's and Argentina's war over the Falkland Islands. The Polish government finally released Lech Walesa, the leader of Solidarity, from prison and terminated martial law. Cosmos 1402, the Soviet's nuclear powered spy satellite, crashed back to earth.

Prominent on the national scene during the 1982-1983 school year was the independent truckers' strike. Tylenol poisonings resulted in several deaths and led to several "copy-cat" incidents including the tampering of eyedrops. The Vietnam War Memorial was erected. With the popularity of video game tax, many governmental units proposed a video game tax. President Reagan proposed lowering the minimum wage for teenagers, and unemployment reached its highest level since the Great Depression. For the first time in history, an artificial heart was implanted in a human. The nation mourned the death of Alabama's Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant, the winningest coach in the history of football. The St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Milwaukee Brewers to become the world baseball champions and the Washington Redskins defeated the Miami Dolphins to become the national football champions.

Prominent on the state scene was the re-election of Governor Richard Thornburgh. After eighty-two days, the California teacher's strike came to an end. Penn State won its first national championship by defeating the Georgia Bulldogs in the Sugar Bowl. The twenty year old Centralia minefire caused the formation of cracks and crevasses in a road running near the town. Many non-striking independent truckers termed the Pennsylvania Turnpike the "combat zone" because of the numerous shootings and brick throwing incidents which occurred on the Turnpike. As a result, the national guard was put on active alert.

On the local scene the fabridam once again deflated, and there was talk of replacing it with a different structure. The Local Taxpayers Association vigorously protested the renovations of the high school. Merle Phillips was elected our state representative, and George Gekas was elected to Congress from the Seventeenth District.

Life is sweet because of the friends we have made
 And the things which in common
 we share;
 We want to live on, not because of ourselves,
 But because of the ones who would care.
 It's living and doing for somebody else
 On that all of life's splendor depends,
 And the joy of it all, when we count it all up,
 Is found in the making of friends.

Ode

The Dying Christian to His Soul

ALEXANDER POPE

Vital spark of heavenly flame!
Quit, oh quit this mortal frame:
Trembling, hoping, lingering, flying,
Oh the pain, the bliss of dying!
Cease, fond Nature, cease thy strife,
And let me languish into life.

Hark! they whisper; Angels say,
Sister Spirit, come away.

What is this absorbs me quite?
Steals my senses, shuts my sight,
Drowns my spirits, draws my breath?
Tell me, my Soul, can this be Death?

The world recedes; it disappears!
Heav'n opens on my eyes! my ears
With sounds seraphic ring:
Lend, lend your wings! I mount! I fly!
O Grave! where is thy Victory?
O Death! where is thy sting?

Growing together . . . high school years mean so many ways to grow. Competition, bus trips, teams, tie breakers, injuries-defeats, victories . . . So many ways to grow means so many memories to carry through the years. Memories grow and with them, all the fun and tears, smiles, and sorrow are kept to remember the growth

Determination Carries Team

Aided by the consistency of junior Paul Kretzer, senior Darvin Dutry, and the strength of the linemen, the squad gave evidence of amazing achievement. Sporting victories over Lewisburg and Milton early in the season gave the Seals additional determination to win the upcoming games. Mark Kreba, who had a superb year for the team, proved to be an asset to the squad's victories. Although the Seals had a losing season, they played well against the teams they were defeated by.

Girls Exceed Goals

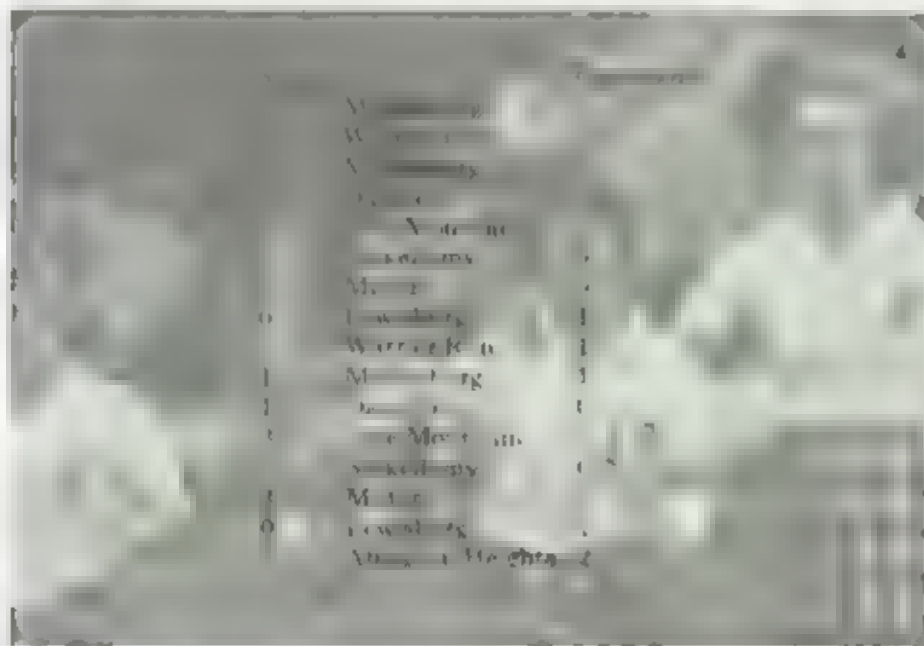

The 1982 Selinsgrove Field Hockey team exceeded the goals they set for themselves. The dedication the girls possessed and their overall positive attitude created a team worthy of the title of District AAA champions.

These traits also helped the girls to advance to regional playoffs. Under the supervision of Coach Donna Prince the Seals ended the season with a 9-3-4 record. Coach Prince felt that the closeness among the girls contributed to their success.

The 1982 season games were considered to be faster and more dangerous because of changes in the rules. Unfortunately many injuries resulted because of these changes; however, the girls never lost their determination to seek excellence.

Friendship Aids Success

The 1982 field hockey team's sportsmanship sometimes worked against them when their opponents took advantage of their fair play. Throughout the season the girls developed aggressive play and thus overcame this handicap.

Coach Prince didn't feel that a few members contributed to the team's success. As far as she was concerned, the entire group of seniors were an asset to the team. This group of 18 seniors was exceptional; they were dedicated and always set a good example for the younger girls.

Harries Endure

Coached by Mr. John Tini, both the boys' and girls' cross country teams showed their strength and endurance this year. Mile after mile, the runners pushed themselves through the hot and humid July practices, and continued to run hard during the fall. Though they didn't go undefeated, the hard work paid off, for each member on the team acquired self-discipline and confidence. The boys' team finished 6-5, while the girls went 3-5.

The boys' team had four seniors, Augie Bucheit, Glenn Hane, Mike Moyer, and Kerry Wagner, to guide the other team members. Coach Tini felt that Alex Varner, Dan Kuruna, Mike Moyer, Ken Smith, and Kerry Wagner ran well throughout the season.

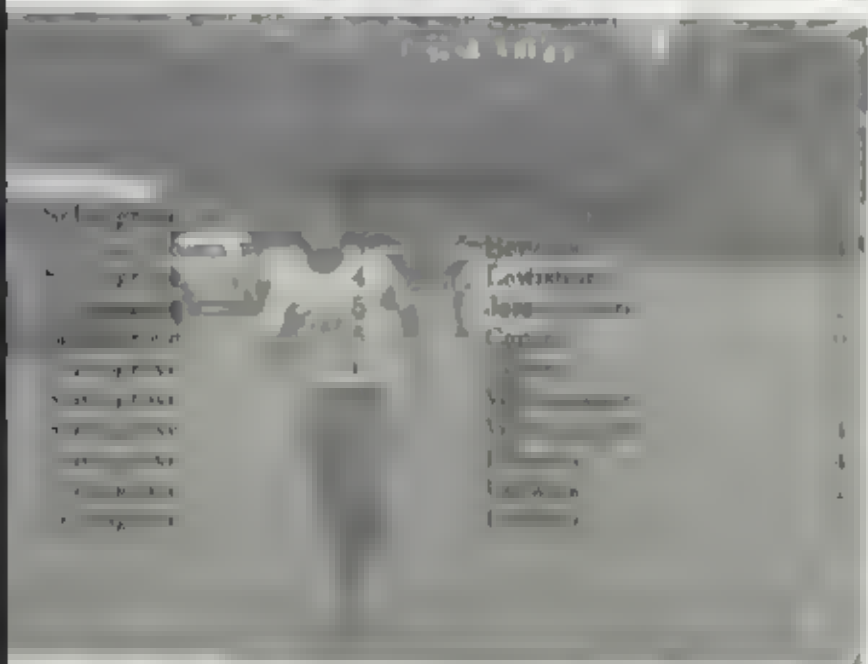

The girls' team had only three seniors: Jamie Bertinet, Martha Culp, and Teri Reichenbach. Running well for the girls were Martha Culp, Tammy Masters, Marcia Strackhouse, Lauren McLernan, and Jean Smith. The girls' team membership increased by four since last year and will probably continue to grow as more girls take interest in running.

Fall Cheerleaders Win Awards

Under the leadership of Co-Captains Lisa Anderson and Becky Reed, the fall varsity cheerleading squad had a very successful season. Due to all the long summer practices, the ten member squad received the "Spirit Firecracker" and numerous ribbons for their never-ending spirit and enthusiasm while at Stroudsburg Sports Camp. In addition to these awards, the girls placed second in the Susquehanna Valley Mall Cheerleaders Competition.

The ten spirited members of the 1982-83 fall squad include Seniors, Lisa Anderson, Kellie Lendh, Cathy Herrold, Shelly Ritter, and Becky Reed. Juniors, Kelly Herrold, Sandy Mull, Tracy Harris, Stacey Lange, and Sarah Bisbee

Girls' Effort Pays Off

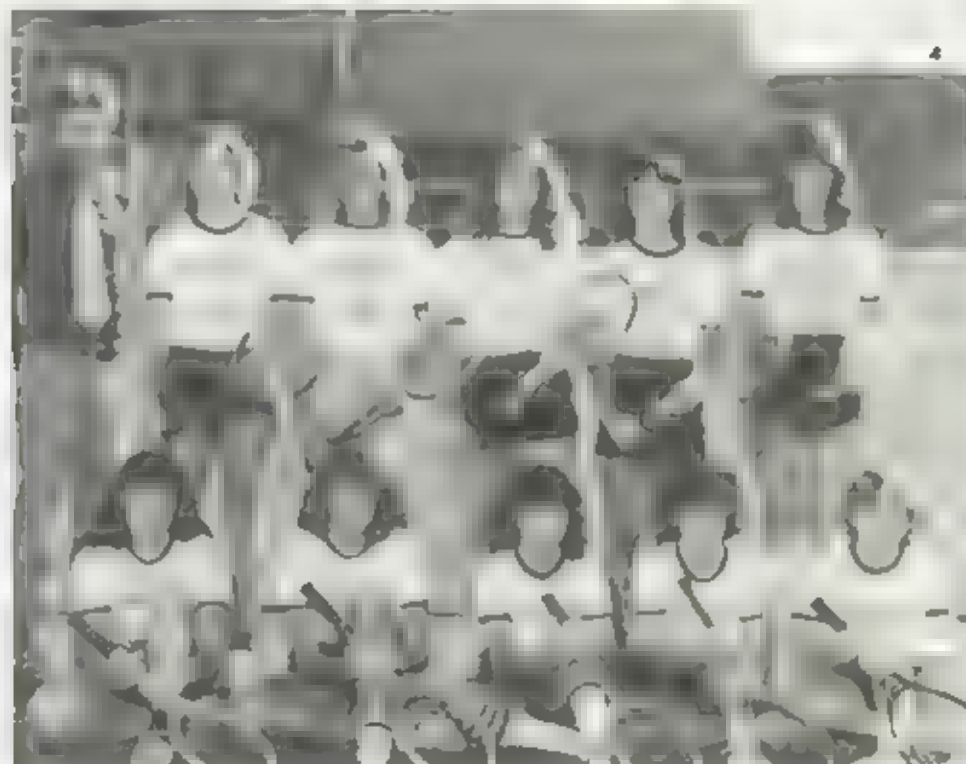

Under the direction of David McCarty, the girls' tennis team found the hard practice and effort to pay off. Coach McCarty commented that each class was represented by an outstanding player. Karen Herrold, Autumn Swisher, Betty Witkop, and Nancy Kauffman contributed greatly to the team's success. In addition, Autumn won the District IV Singles Championship and went to State competition.

Since last year, two new teams, Jersey Shore and Williamsport were added to the Seals' schedule. One match that won't be forgotten was with Danville in which the girls played for three hours. With the strong underclassmen, Coach McCarty feels that the team has a good chance of going undefeated next year.

Golf Team Rebuilds

The 1982 Selinsgrove Area High School Golf Team underwent a year of rebuilding. Under the experienced coaching of Chester Rowe, the Seals faced tough opponents in Danville in preseason competition, and in Loyalsock and Lewisburg in regular season matches.

Returning lettermen to the Selinsgrove linkmen were sophomores, Jon and Chris Bailey, Andy Potter, and Don Wyand; junior, Greg Russell, and senior, Bruce Pirie. Greg Russell was considered to be the team's most valuable player.

As a reconstruction year, the Selinsgrove team developed character as well as gaining needed experience. Coach Rowe has an optimistic outlook for next year's golf team.

Hard Practices Produce Successful Season

The Seals Varsity Wrestling squad is under the experienced supervision of Coach Dick Smoker who has returned for his twenty-sixth season and Bill Bechtel who has recently signed on as the assistant coach.

Despite the absence of a 98 pound wrestler at the beginning of the season and the lack of participation from the junior high wrestlers who did not go out for the squad this year, the team felt they achieved a very successful season. Practices this year started earlier in the season and the intensity of the practices picked up greatly

Seals Shoot Exceptional Season

The Boy's Varsity Basketball team played to the best of their abilities and achieved a memorable and outstanding season. In his second year as coach, Mr. Jim Beddall felt the season was an all around very exciting and rewarding. The Seals took on many tough opponents but managed to come out the victors in many thrilling and high pressure games. According to Mr. Beddall, two of the most impressive games were both Shikellamy games, where the Seals performed superbly.

Shieks "Psyche Up" Seals

Cheering the boys on to victory in many games were the anonymous "Shieks." These Bucknell students dressed as shieks, helped to psyche up the crowd and the players as well, by doing cheers and chants for the Seals.

Playing excellent offense and being high scorers were senior, Scott Lyons, and junior, Mike Harnum. Defensively, junior, Bill Caviston did a great job. Senior, Glenn Hane and sophomore, Dave Housley did outstanding jobs of handling the ball.

Experienced Team Plays Well

Coach Carl Seitz and the Selinsgrove Girl's Varsity Basketball Team led by Senior co-captains Denise Benner and Diane Gingrich shot through the season with true determination and spirit. The girls' ability to work and play well together was due to many long, hard hours of practice during the regular season and during the summer and fall months. Losing only two seniors, the team has matured greatly in their level of concentration and defensive skills.

Seniors Dominate Varsity

These talents have pulled them through many games to a respectable record. This season's toughest opponents included Shamokin and Danville. The 1982-1983 team was composed of seven seniors: Denise Benner, Jamie Bertinet, Diane Gingrich, Kellie Pence, Megan Savidge, Shari Stewart, Cara Vignone and Kim Weber. The other members of the team were juniors Luci Meiser and Cathy Muller and sophomore Kim Lair. Everyone involved with the girls' basketball program exhibits overall superior attitudes and enthusiasm.

Bowling Team Strikes Forth

Under the coaching of James Rutkowski, the 1983 Selinsgrove Area High School Bowling Team worked hard to produce results. The 1982 Girls' Varsity earned the S.V.L. Championship, which helped set long-term goals for this year's team. However, the loss of four of the six starters proved to be a major setback for the team, and some reconstruction had to be done. Kerry Wagner and Diane Eisely could always be depended on to bowl a good game, and the great improvement and determination of members like Greg Kline, Pat Bickhart and Bill Rowe were an inspiration to the rest of the team.

Track Team Hits 100

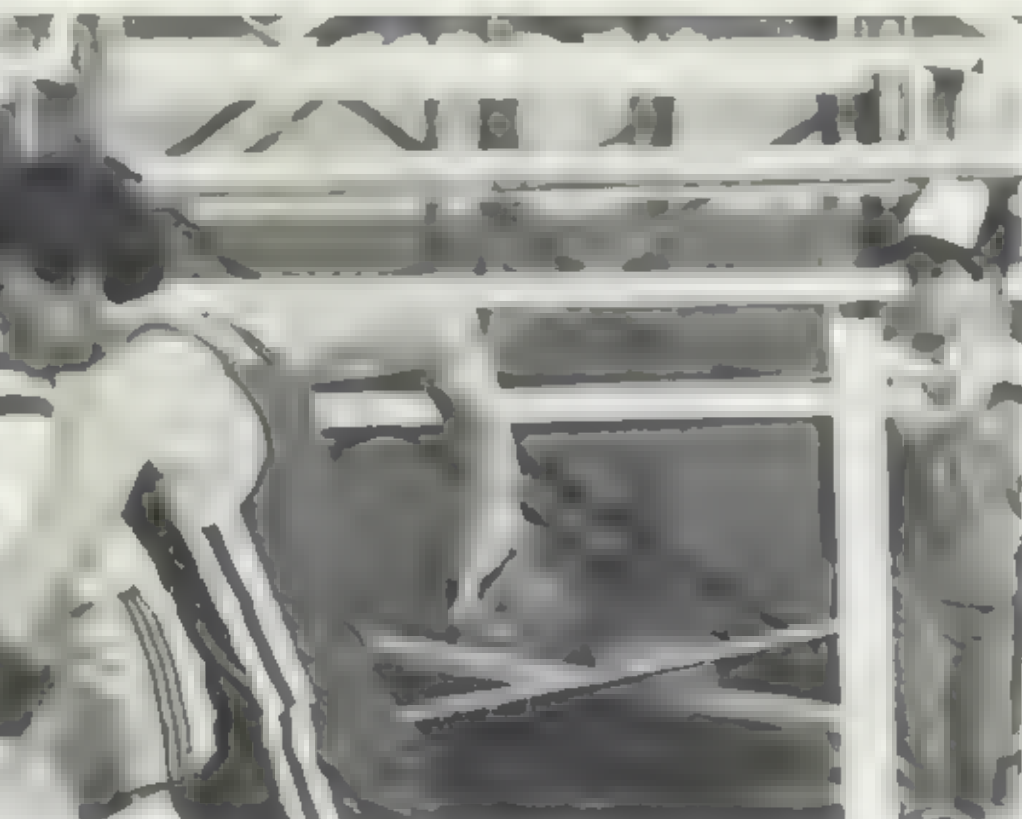

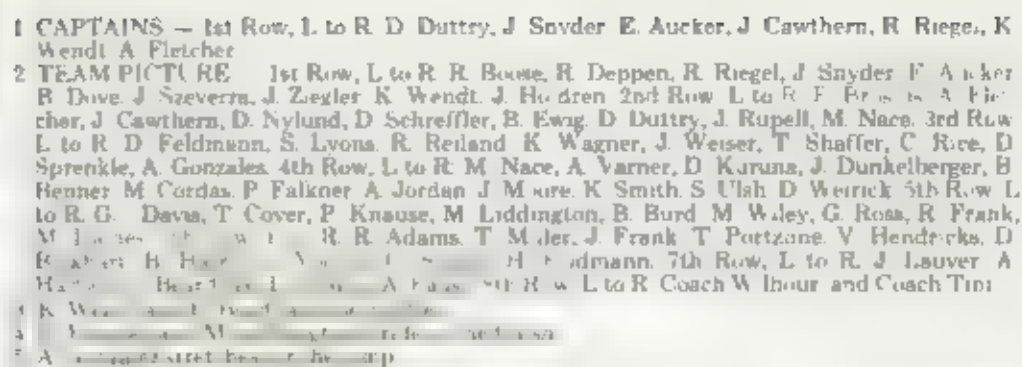

The 1982 boys' track team, under the leadership of Coach Wilhour and assistants John Tini and George Hummel, maintained a ten year winning streak with a team record of 104 consecutive dual meets.

Captains Roland Riegel, Eric Aucker, Andy Fletcher, and Jerry Snyder helped guide the team through a successful season. The team prevailed at the Susquehanna Valley Classic and the Bloomsburg Indoor Meet.

Track Team Victorious at Districts

They captured their first District 4, AAA title by defeating Milton and Danville, two teams who had beaten them earlier in the season. Darwin Duttry, Mark Haines, Doug Beaver, Eric Aucker, Kevin Wendt, Jeff Holdren, Scott Lyons, Rich Reiland, and John Cawthern, District 4 champions, qualified for the State Track Meet held at Shippensburg State College.

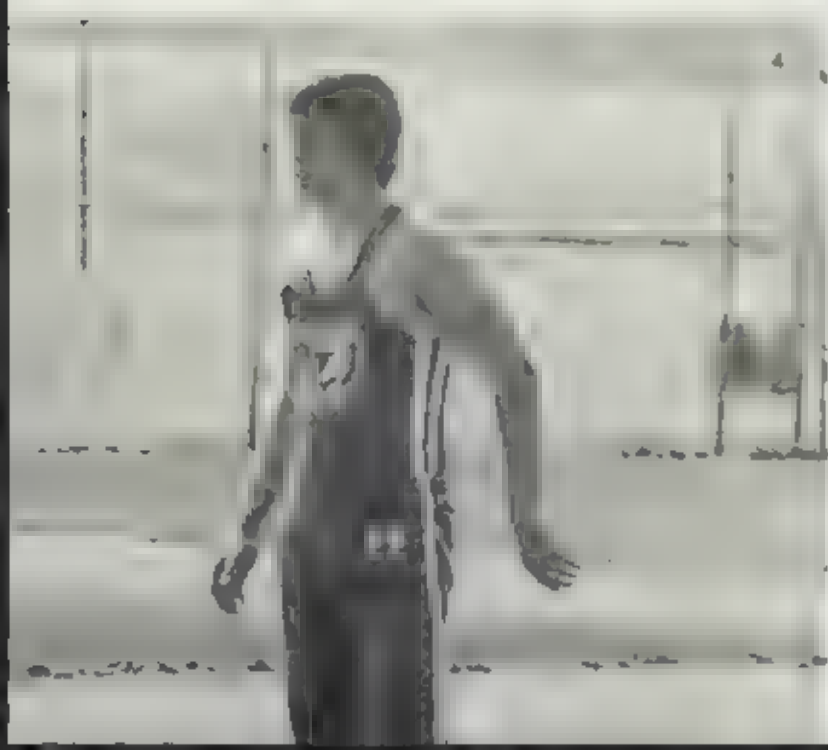

The boys' track team can attribute their great success to the superb attitudes, hardwork, dedication, and pride of all the members and coaches.

New Talents Add to Team Success

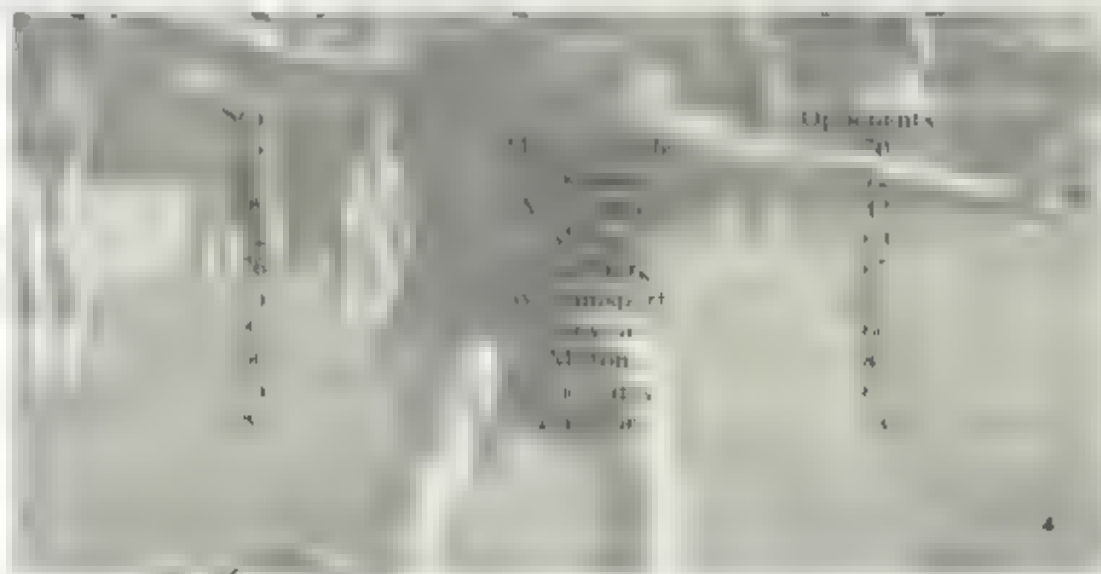

Under the leadership of coaches Donna Prince, Dee Musser, and Fred Lenig, the Selinsgrove girls' track team ended the season with a 7-3 record. Captains Angie Brosius, Kris Weber, and Lori Vargo helped to guide the team through another successful season. Defeats by Williamsport, Milton, and Shikellamy did not hinder the Seals' spirit. In a second meet against Shikellamy, the Seals came back defeating the Braves by 20 points. The girls also went on to do well in Classics and in the District IV Meet.

Boys' Tennis Team Repeats Success

Finishing with a 9-5 record the Selinsgrove Area High School Boys Tennis Team had a season to be proud of. One of the highlights was the advancement of two Selinsgrove double teams to finals at district competition marking the first time in the history of district play that two teams of the same high school advanced to the finals. Don Harnum and Autumn Swisher were first and John Norton and Barbra Witkop were second in district play.

Another highlight of the season was John Norton's undefeated record in regular season play.

The team's toughest opponent was Danville. Don Harnum and Mike Reed were outstanding players for the season.

Seals Endure Challenging Opposition

Using the knowledge gained from Coach Bill Scott and new assistant Coach Jim Messner, the 1982 Selinsgrove Baseball Team displayed great effort. The boys played to their best abilities to achieve their 5-13 record. The versatility of Glenn Urey, the pitching of Bob Hoover, the fielding of Curt Pope and Jack Confer, and the second base playing of Vince Anselmo were all assets to the team in accomplishing many close final scores. The rally with Line Mountain and the challenging game against Shikellany in the rain increased spectator interest and Coach Messner feels that baseball is on its way back in popularity at Selinsgrove Area High School. The returning members bring promises for a successful 1983 season.

New Coach Helps JV's

Under the direction of new Coach Jim Messner, the Seals' J.V. Baseball Team gained insight on game fundamentals. Assisting the lesser experienced members of the squad were pitcher, Greg Russell, catcher and outstanding hitter, Trent Dreese, second baseman, Mark Hackenburg, first baseman, Scott Williams, and outfielders, Todd Benner and Allen Berge. The J.V.'s also had an exciting game versus Shikellamy, and the boys played well in most of their games. Although they did not have a winning record, the team had an enjoyable season.

Girls' Softball Shows Progress

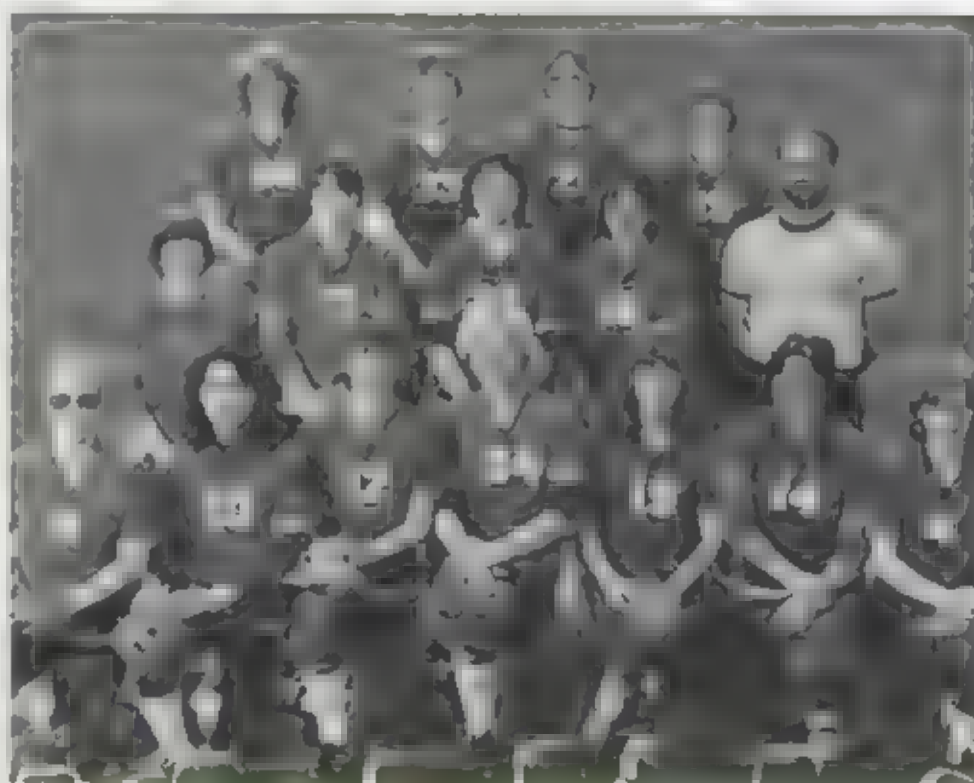

The 1982 softball season showed an increase in interest and improved attitude. The girls worked together and gave evidence of great determination. Kathy Schlingmann provided power in hitting and the added defense of Michelle Shaffer, Denise Benner, and Tana Weaver guided the Seals to win the softball classic, advance to districts, and close the season with a winning record of 12-7.

In his second year as head coach, Mr. Thompson feels the strength from the team came when the girls were informed of the qualifications for districts. Domination was necessary in five of six games, and with increased support as the season went on and improved thinking from team members, the Sealettes triumphed in all six games.

Balanced Team Wins Classic

Although the losses to Shikellamy and Shamokin were especially devastating the Seals had an overall rewarding and enjoyable season. The team was particularly well balanced and each girl possessed unique qualities to add to the team's ability on the playing field.

Band Displays School Spirit and Interest

The Selinsgrove Area High School Band, under the direction of Mr. Francis Pineno, not only contributes to school spirit by playing at pep rallies and football games, but also participates in community events. For example, this year's band marched in the Halloween parade and played carols at the annual White Christmas Tree Lighting Ceremony. This group of dedicated and talented students also plays in the Memorial Day Parade and in the Commencement Ceremony. A trip to Florida is planned for June of 1983, where the band will play in the Mickey Mouse Parade at Disney world and perform in concert at Sea World.

The band undertook many money-making projects, the greatest of which was an 8,000 foot banana split. In addition to generating over $10,000 for new uniforms, the effort was worthy of entry in the Guinness Book of World Records. This Record ice cream concoction brought national attention to the band and Selinsgrove.

A Multitude of Activities Keep Band Active

District Band and Susquehanna Valley Band are honors obtainable by those band members with the ambition to do so. Although freshmen may not try out for District Band, they may try out for Susquehanna Valley Band. Fourteen members of this year's Senior Band qualified for District Band and twenty-nine qualified for S.V.B.

In addition to regular band, students may participate in Orchestra, Sealed in Sound or Jazz Band, the German Band, or Bandfront which consists of flags, majorettes, and the Color Guard.

Organization Recognizes Academic Achievement

The National Honor Society is a group of students ranging from tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade who are selected for their character, leadership qualities, academic achievement, and school activities. Each year the National Honor Society has a spring doughnut sale in order to raise money for the scholarships the society gives to selected senior members. Also, the group provides tutoring for students that need help in specific subject areas.

This year the society teamed up with the Student Council to collect money from the student body for a high school student in Sunbury who was afflicted with bone cancer. They raised $600.

Also, a new tradition has started with induction. This year the induction was done by candlelight and each of the five candles represented a different quality each new member and existing members had to display in order to be considered as a member of the National Honor Society.

FFA Provides Learning Experience

The Future Farmers of America is a group of about 80 students both boys and girls whose goals are to develop leadership, citizenship and cooperation. Under the direction of Mr. Roger Reichenbach, Mr. Chris Weller and Mr. Earl Ferry, the FFA is involved in many projects, trips and competitions. During the fall this group of students made and sold their own apple butter and apple cider. Citrus fruits and poinsettias were sold during the Christmas season and green house plants were sold in the spring. Each year the group of FFA members involved in production and mechanics traveled to Harrisburg to view the farm show while the students involved in horticulture visited a flower show. Competitions, which included students from all the schools in the Snyder, Union, and Northumberland counties, were held. This year's competitions included land judging, forestry, parliamentary competition, floral design, land scaping, tractor driving, public speaking, and agricultural mechanics.

Harmony Created by Chorus

This year's Chorus is an active singing group dedicated to achieving perfection in the new and challenging music they take on. They perform three concerts annually, a Christmas Concert, a Pops Concert and a Spring Concert. Nine talented members participated in the 1982 District Chorus: Rachel Klingensmith, Scott Steele, Kevin Wendt, Jeff Kahley, Jim Gautsch, Hazel Wheaton, Sharon Hoot, Christine Campbell, and Doug Beaver. Kellie Pence and Rachel Klingensmith attended All States Chorus. The Chorus has been a long-standing organization with a reputation of adding enjoyment and music to our school and community.

Club Undertakes Community Service Project

Under the leadership of Mrs. Julie Hatzel, the Future Business Leaders of America kept themselves very busy this year. Consisting of 44 business students from tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade, the FBLA took part in community service projects and recreational activities. At Christmas, they sponsored a Christmas Seal tree at the mall to raise money for the Central Pennsylvania Lung and Health Service Association. Annually, the members compete in the Regional Spring Contest, held this year at Line Mountain. Contests are held in typing, accounting, shorthand, business math, office procedures, and there is also a Mr. and Miss FBLA contest. Anyone who places first, second, and third advances to state competition. For recreation, they have a hayride, a Christmas and skating party, and a year end banquet honoring the seniors.

New Advisor Guides Student Council

Under the new advisor, Mr. Messner, the SAHS Student Council took responsibility for various activities and programs. The Student Council is responsible for organizing Homecoming, White Christmas, monitoring the Social Area, selling candy at basketball games and wrestling matches, and many other minor projects. In order to pay for all the special programs they have one or two fund raisers throughout the year. This year the Student Council started the Student Recognition Program. Each week a student is recognized for outstanding achievement in any school-related area. In December, some members represented the student body at a public meeting about renovations on the school.

Club Promotes Personal Growth

The Future Homemakers of America is one of the newest clubs at SAHS. Advised by Mrs. Alma Pauling, the club promotes happy, well-balanced homes. The purpose of this nationwide organization is "to help youths assume their roles in society through home economics education in areas of personal growth, family life, vocational preparation, and community involvement."

Ranking officers of the FHA are President, Crystal Strickler; Vice President, Vickie Kline; Treasurer, Melissa Baney; Secretary, Melissa Knouse. Also there are two representatives for each class on their staff: Juniors: Gail Schreffler and Diane Mull, Sophomores: Kathy Stauffer and Jackie Kuhns, Freshmen: Barbara Musser and Kathy London. This organization has skating parties to help build up the treasury and have held programs for the elderly. The girls also grow in self development and are recognized by degrees which they may earn throughout the year.

Destiny Provides Information

The Destiny is the monthly school newspaper used to inform the students, teachers, and community concerning school events and happenings. This year the school newspaper is under the advisorship of Alex Gruenberg. Mr. Gruenberg hopes to aim each article toward individualism and school achievement. New articles and columns have been added such as Outdoors, Column, Row Review, and Poetry. Not only have new columns been added but also the size of the staff has almost doubled since last year

Club Provides Career Information

This year's Health Careers club composed of 16 members is under the advisorship of Mrs. Moyer, the school nurse. The Health Careers club was organized to acquaint students with the different types of health careers, educational requirements, and job availability.

Each year the club takes one field trip. Last year's trip was to Lancaster General Hospital and this year's trip will be to Wilkes-Barre General Hospital. Occasionally guests are invited to speak to the group on their occupation.

The four officers of this year's club are: President, Jill Moyer; Vice President, Stephanie Bastian; Secretary, Ann Baronowski; and Treasurer, Lora Dreese.

Outdoors Club Provides Wilderness Experience

The Outdoors Club under the advisership of Mr. William Bechtel and Mr. Charles Kirchner provides students with the wilderness experience. The club which consists of approximately fifty members is involved in several fund raising projects which include the selling of Easter candy and tumblers. This year's Parents Booster Club sponsored a firewood raffle to raise money for the annual Easter backpacking climbing trip. This year's trip will be to West Virginia. Other trips such as a cross country ski trip to Crystal Lake and a white water rafting trip to be held in the spring are planned for this year.

Clubs Enhance Language Study

The Spanish Club is an excellent opportunity to enhance the study of the Spanish language and culture. Now in its fifth year, the club has again followed the pattern of increasing membership. The members take part in activities on various holidays: The Day of the Dead (Halloween) and the Day of the Three Kings (Christmas). Also, it has been a tradition to close the year with a Spanish dinner for which members prepare Mexican and Spanish dishes. The club continues to grow and develop as new ideas and activities are suggested by the officers and members.

New French Club Attracts Many

French instructor Mr. Robert Brozekat organized a new club at SAHS which gives French Students the opportunity to experience French culture outside the classroom. The idea proved to be worthwhile when a large percentage of all French students signed up for the program. The club elected four officers; President, Fred Grosse; Vice President, Lori Weader; Secretary-Treasurer, Dave Housely; and Activities Chairman, Bill Exner. All officers helped in preparing the recent activity of a French dessert sampling. The club looks forward to keeping active in projects concerning French music, art, cuisine, and other cultural activities.

Team Organized to Promote Interest

The 1982-83 Chess team consists of eight members coached and advised by Mr. Russell Palkendo. The chess team was organized to promote chess in the high school and to give those students interested in chess a chance to compete in the North Branch Interscholastic Chess League. The League teams include Selinsgrove, Danville, Shamokin, Shamokin Lourdes, and Millville.

In last year's competition, the Seals finished the season with a record of 3 wins, 3 losses, and 2 ties. The Seals finished fourth in the North Branch League.

Varsity "S" Club Acknowledges Student Athletes

The Varsity "S" club is an organization formed to acknowledge student athletes who excel in one or more sports at the Selinsgrove Area High School. Varsity "S" status is achieved by earning two JV letters or one Varsity letter in the sports participated in. Coach Conn advises the Girls Varsity "S" club, and the Boys Varsity "S" club is advised by Coach Scott. Members have the choice to purchase a Varsity jacket, and a main function of the Girls Varsity "S" is to raise money to purchase these jackets. However, the primary reason this club exists is to honor and recognize the outstanding athletes at S.A.H.S., and to promote athletics, school spirit, and sportsmanship throughout the school.

Yearbook Receives Keystone

The 1982 yearbook received the Keystone Award, the Pennsylvania School Press Association's highest award, at the fifty-first annual convention held in Lancaster. Cynosure had never received this ranking in previous competition.

This year's staff, advised by Mr. Bechtel and Miss Shaloka, worked towards high goals set by the editors-in-chief Kay Soper and Kristin Stringfellow. Pictures, layouts, copy and meetings were planned, re-planned, and completed. Workshops were attended and the yearbook was sent to the publisher. Tradition was broken this year when the publication was prepared in collegiate size.

Juniors Assume Leadership

In their third year in high school, the juniors assume leadership roles, and win starting positions on varsity teams. They serve on committees, and organize the Junior-Senior Prom. They begin to make plans for the future. They assume a dominant role in the school, and assert themselves as seniors-to-be

Freshmen Get Over Initial Timidness

Although the freshmen were new to the high school atmosphere, they quickly got over their initial timidity, and eagerly involved themselves in athletic teams, clubs, and organizations. They went to their first high school dances, their first pep rallies, and by the end of the year, were asserting themselves as members of the student body.

Skills Allow Effective Living

The ability to live effectively in the modern world demands skills that are emphasized for a special group of students at Selinsgrove Area High School. These skills are planned in home economics and pre-vocational training. Skills for leisure time enjoyment are also included with the mastering of these skills, these students enter the modern world better prepared to live effectively.

Academics

Growing together ... High School years mean so many ways to grow. Helpers, mentors, friends, guiders, counselors, supporters, instructors ... So many ways to grow mean so many memories to carry through the years. Memories grow and with them, all the fun and tears, smiles and sorrow are kept to remember the growth

Faculty Offer Discipline and Examples

Many of the high school faculty spend countless hours with students listening and advising. They help to set goals and to evaluate emotions, to ease tensions and to assess values.

They present discipline in many forms: individual competition, practice schedules, study habits, organized writing, long term assignments, and deadlines. They try to set examples for others to follow.

Growing together ... High School years mean so many ways to grow. Experience, letters, explanations, excused from classes, telephone calls, rejections, checks ... So many ways to grow mean so many memories to carry through the years. Memories grow and with them, all the fun and tears, smiles and sorrow are kept to remember the growth.

ULTIMATELY, YOU'LL CHOOSE TRETORN.

4. L. Anderson instructs D. Gingrich where to hang clown during homecoming decorating.

Friendships and Memories

These friendships and memories will remain everlasting: kings, queens, courts, and assemblies; actors, actresses, plays, and musicals; dances, dinners, tuxedos, and gowns; victories, defeats, ties; teams, games, and champions; special friends, classmates, and companions; advisors, leaders, and coaches, entertainment, interests, and fun. These friendships and memories will be part of our yesterdays

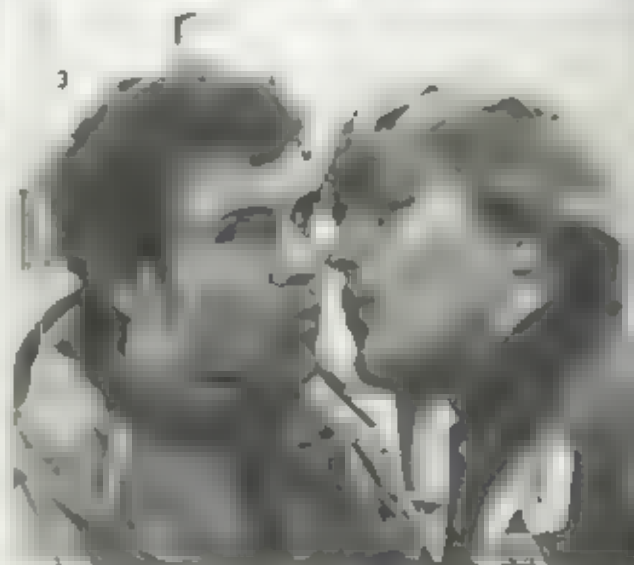

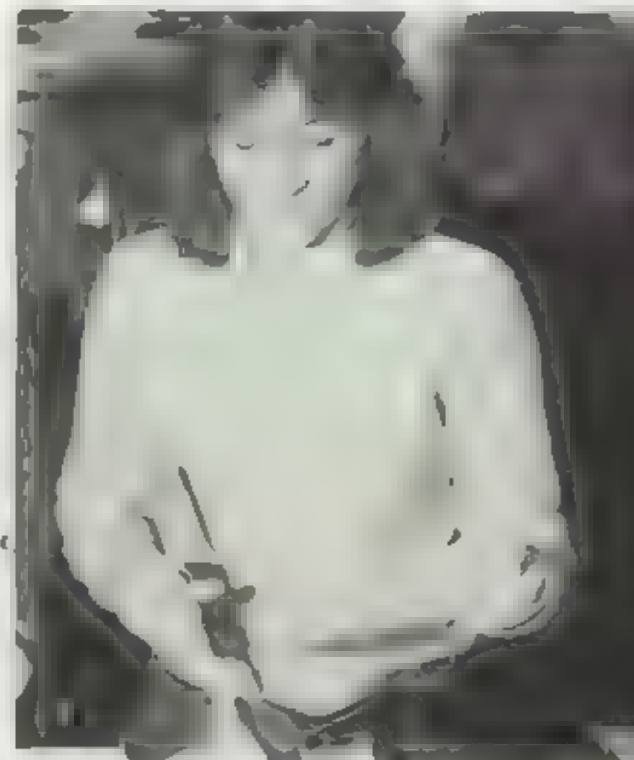

- 1 C. Weaver and C. Doak mix together ingredients for their cherry cheese cake
- 2 G. Hane and S. Lyons await the morning bell
- 3 K. Moffatt and C. Mowry take time from decorating downtown to share a few laughs
- 4 K. Wedler and R. Kanta carefully measure the length of a piece of wood during shop class

Memories Grow

These friendships and memories will be part of our tomorrows. As we reach for new stars, search for greater knowledge, and look for different answers, these treasures help us to find that within us which can reach and search and look, that within us which creates new goals and finds new dreams.

Our growth together is recorded so that we may be reminded that memories grow and with them, all the fun and tears, smiles and sorrow are kept to remember the growth.

1. A typical scene at SAHS, the guys lined up along the wall by the boys' bathroom.
2. S. Ritter carefully follows recipe while preparing filling for a dessert in foods class.
3. T. Hickman and J. Glover ham it up for the photographer
4. D. Ikehara dressed as a marionette for her role in the White Christmas program.

The blossom that flowered as day gone by has reached its full bloom but shall not die.

For the seed of the flower will ever be to grow until eternity.

The petals will wilt and eventually fall, taken by the wind to rid of all.

The memory, though, shall still remain as the seed of the blossom holds the frame.

Just like the flower of life, we shall always cherish the memories that we held in our blossoms
as we grew through the years.

Kay Soper

1. Seniors D. Eistey, J. Cohick, C. Foor, and J. Cumberland work together to help decorate for White Christmas in downtown Salinsgrove
